Trisept Solutions Adds New Supplier to VAX VacationAccess

Luxury tour provider Maupintour featured on award-winning leisure travel marketplace

Milwaukee (April 6, 2016) – Trisept Solutions, a leading-edge travel technology firm propelling the biggest names in travel, announces the launch of luxury tour provider Maupintour on VAX VacationAccess.

Vacation tour offerings by the Weston, Fla. based Maupintour – a subsidiary of Monaker Group (OTCQB: MKGI) – will be featured on VAX through a supplier showcase, select advertising and educational webinars.

“We’re incredibly excited to have Maupintour join our line-up of suppliers on VAX,” said Lynn Clark, vice president of travel agency engagement. “Their products will undoubtedly broaden the offering on VAX, giving travel agents even more benefits and value when using the platform.”

Maupintour offers private tours for individuals in Africa, Asia, Australia, Central and South America, Europe and North America.

“Working with Trisept and VAX will help us reintroduce Maupintour to travel agents on the industry’s most trusted booking platform,” said Bill Kerby, chairman and CEO of Monaker Group. “With over 30 years of experience, I’m confident that our concierge-level service will help travel agents build more robust and custom itineraries for their clients.”

VAX is used by over 70,000 travel agents on a regular basis and provides an intuitive and user-friendly way for agents to research, market and sell custom vacations. It was voted “Best Agent-Only Website for Online Travel Services” by Travel Weekly’s Magellan Awards and continues to evolve as a superior tool for leisure travel professionals.
